Braidwood il police reports

BRAIDWOOD, IL - A 47-year-old Braidwood woman, an employee and administrative assistant with the Braidwood Police Department, has been charged with identity theft and theft. The Will County Sheriff's Office has investigated. According to the criminal complaint, Lynda Miner is accused of fraudulently obtaining a Capital One Walmart credit card belonging to a man and improperly using the credit between February 2014 and August 29, 2019. The amount of money stolen was between $300 and $2,000, according to Will County prosecutors. The second charge indicates that Miner committed theft against the same man by taking cash worth more than $500 and less than $10,000 between January 22, 2017 and May 5, 2017, the criminal complaint states. Will County Judge Roger Rickmon issued an arrest warrant for Miner on September 21 and the judge put her bail at $50,000. Will County Jail records do not indicate miner was booked into prison. Instead, she showed up at the Braidwood Police Department and released 10% of her bail on September 27, court documents show. Patch called the Braidwood Police Department Thursday afternoon, but one of the employees said Miner was unavailable. Miner's last known address, according to the arrest warrant, was listed as the 100 block of East Main Street in Braidwood. Published on: 04/01/2019 - 13:41 A long-term investigation ended with the arrest of two people with close ties to one of Braidwood's most recognizable monuments. On March 28, Braidwood police made two arrests on charges of crime at the Sun Motel along I-55, recognized across the country as the famous hotel in the movie Airplanes, Trains and Cars. Braidwood police arrested Vinodchandra Vinny Patel, the owner of the Sun Motel listed and living in Des Plaines, for promoting prostitution, a Class 4 crime.
